

2016 Cultural Grants

1. ZKM Academy

An American team will lead a two-day workshop on improv and starting your own improv performance group at the ZKM academy.

2. Koprivnica Museum

This project will help bring an exhibit by American photographer Nicolo Sertorio entitled "On the Road" will tour to galleries and museums in Koprivnica, Split, Virovitica and Osijek.

3. Step and Jazz Dance Studio

Three U.S. tap dancers will lead youth workshops and perform as part of the annual Dubrovnik Tap Festival.

4. Croatian Association of Visual Arts

This grant will partially fund an exhibit by American photographer Sandro Miller which recreates iconic photos of people like Albert Einstein and Andy Warhol with the actor John Malkovich.

5. Ethnographic Museum of Istria

A U.S. speaker will facilitate a series of workshops on managing and marketing museums.

6. Jazz School of Groznjan

This grant will bring a U.S. musician to lead workshops and perform at the annual Groznjan Jazz Summer School.

7. Motovun Film Festival

An American film director will present workshops on filmmaking and discuss his films at the annual festival.

8. Omis Guitarfest

This grant will pay for one American artist to teach and perform at this annual event.

9. Jewish Film Festival Foundation

American sculptor Robert Wilson will come to Zagreb to create a sculpture on the theme of tolerance and diversity to be exhibited at the future Museum for Tolerance. Until the museum is realized, the sculpture will be installed in a public space in Zagreb. The program includes workshops for art students and professionals.